ABOUT DISNEY HOME

The new Disney home giftware range has been carefully crafted to bring a touch of magic and enchantment to your home. From magical Disney characters to iconic Disney symbols, each piece in the collection is designed to be both stylish and functional. The forest friends collection features beloved characters such as Bambi, Thumper and Flower while the Mickey and Minnie range showcases the iconic couple in various poses and designs. This new giftware range caters to all ages and is perfect for Disney fans looking to add some magic to their homes or for gift-giving occasions.

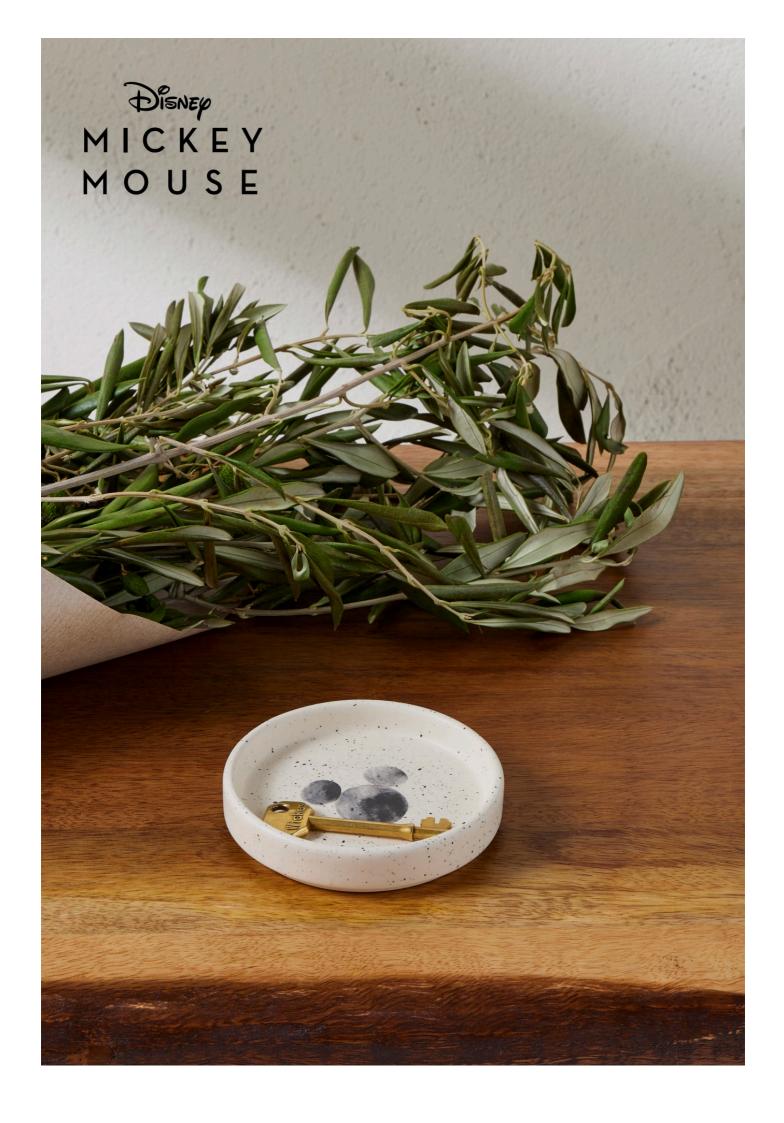

Our team has worked closely with Disney for many years, and we are thrilled to launch this new range that showcases our shared passion for bringing joy and wonder into people's lives.

The new range features a mix of classic Disney designs and more contemporary styles, ensuring there is something to suit every taste and home decor. Whether you are looking for a statement piece to add a touch of whimsy to your living room, or a practical yet charming gift, you are sure to find the perfect item in our collection. So why not treat yourself or a loved one to a magical Disney home gift today?

It was Christmas Eve, 1925 when the world was first introduced to the Joys and whimsical antics of Winnether-pooh, a captivating short story, "The Wrong Sort of Bees," by AA Milne, was published in The London Evening News. It was in the following year, when Christopher Robin was just 6 years old, that the little bear, now, Winnie-the-pooh was published in a book, bearing the same name.
